NOTICE OF ORDER

Pursuant to the amendment of 28 U.S.C. § 152(c)(2)(A), the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana has issued an order moving the court to 707 Florida Street, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, 70801 until the court's offices in New Orleans are functional again. The issuance of this order was necessitated by the damage caused by Hurricane Katrina on August 29, 2005. Due to a mandatory evacuation of the City of New Orleans and the damage resulting from the storm, the court is unable to operate in the Eastern District at this time. Because it is important to keep the United States federal courts operational, the chief judge has issued the order moving the court until such time as the court can reopen in New Orleans. The court further provides this notice to the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate and the Committee on the Judiciary of the house of Representatives pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 152(c)(2)(C)(i)(I).

Baton Rouge, Louisiana, this 12th day of September, 2005.
